THREE NEW CASES

Including $20,000 Damage Suit Filed in Common Pleas Court Last Week.

Three new cases were filed in the Common Pleas Court during the past week:
J. H. Pugh vs. Franklin Tedrick et al, is the title of a suit in which the plaintiff asks partition of lots No. 28 and 45 in Allensburg. Plaintiff states that he and the defendants are the heirs-at-law of J. H. Pugh, Sr., deceased, and hold the above named property as tenants in common. He prays that his interest may be set off to him in severalty or if that can not be done without manifest injury to the property that it be sold and he be given his share of the proceeds.
In his petition for divorce from Chlole L. Roush, James B. Roush alleges some very unusual and unnatural conditions.
After stating that they were married in Hillsboro May 28, 1908, and that one child, Lawrence, aged 15 months, was born of the union, he says that ever since their marriage the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty, in that she often left their home without the consent of plaintiff and would go to the home of her parents and the houses of neighbors, leaving all the household duties to be performed by him and that on about September, 1909, without just excuse she wholly abandoned their home, leaving the child with plaintiff and has never since that time performed any of her wifely duties nor the duties of a mother to her child, never even having called to see or inquired about the child and has at all times refused to return to their home and to help attend to the child. Wherefore he asks for divorce and the custody of the child.
Worley & Wiggins are attorneys for plaintiff.
Frank M. Allen, of Fayette county, has filed suit against T. T. Smith, of Leesburg, in which he asks damages of $20,000 for injuries received by reason of his horse scaring at the automobile of plaintiff.
This suit was originally brought in Fayette county, but as was stated in these columns recently was dismissed on the ground that the law giving the plaintiff in automobile accidents the privilege of bringing suit in the county in which he resides was unconstitutional. The allegations in the petition are in brief as follows:
The plaintiff says that in December, 1909, while driving from Staunton to Washington C. H. at a point about three miles and a half from the latter city, or what is known as the Leesburg pike, he met the defendant, who was riding in his motor car. He says that at this point the road is unobstructed for a distance of at least 100 yards and that there is a deep ditch on the easterly side of the road, that when he saw plaintiff coming he kept to the easterly, the right side of the road, leaving for the defendant the greater part of the highway; that plaintiff's horse was and is a gentle animal, used to and not subject to frighten at automobiles; that defendant failed to keep to the right of the road and recklessly, wantonly, negligently and unlawfully and at a speed greatly in excess of 20 miles an hour, ran his automobile toward plaintiff's horse and buggy, frightening the horse and causing it to swerve toward the open ditch, and to overthrow his buggy into the ditch, hurling the plaintiff against the side of the buggy, thereby dislocating his right shoulder joint, fracturing his right arm near the shoulder, fracturing several ribs, straining the ligaments binding the ribs to the spinal column, dislocating joints of fingers of his right hand, cutting a deep gash about five inches in length above the right eye and bruising the tissues of the right eye; and that the defendant knowing of the injuries suffered by plaintiff failed and neglected to stop his motor car or to render or offer to render any service, looking to plaintiff's relief or to contribute in the slightest degree to extricate the plaintiff from his peril, but continued on his course.
Plaintiff says that by reason of his injuries he is disfigured for life and incapacitated from pursuing his vocation, teaching school; that he was compelled to pay out a large sum of money for medical treatment and care, all to his damage in the sum of $20,000.
H. H. Sanderson and John Logan, of Washington C. H., and D. Q. Morrow, of Hillsboro, are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Lecture At Centerfield.

Dr. J. B. Wilson, of Cincinnati, will lecture at Centerfield, on Sunday, June 12, at 2:30 p. m. Subject—"What Must Christianity Do to Be Saved." All are invited.

DOSTER AND HOLDREN

Nominated for State Senator by Republican Convention at Chillicothe Friday.

Coke L. Doster, of Greenfield, and Dr. R. W. Holdren, of Bloomingburg, Fayette county, were selected as the Republican candidates for state senators of the Fifth-Sixth Senatorial District at the convention at Chillicothe Friday. Both nominations were made by acclamation.
Judge Newby presented the name of Mayor Doster and M. A. Daugherty, of Washington C. H., presented Dr. Holdren. The convention was in session less than fifteen minutes.
As is always the case at Senatorial conventions in this district there were rumors before hand that an effort would be made to break the rotation rule in force in this district for many years and as usual the rotation rule was observed.
The report before the convening of the convention was that Ross and Clinton counties had made a deal to nominate Frank B. Mauller, of Chillicothe, and a candidate to be selected by Green county. The report was based on the alleged opposition of a part of the Ross county delegation to the nomination of Doster and Holdren because they were temperance men and that by the move the liberal element would secure one of candidates. It was however all talk as the Green county delegation would not consider the deal.
The following Senatorial Committee was named by the convention: Highland—D. Q. Morrow and John T. Daniel.
Clinton—Stacey A. Mitchell and D. C. Pemberton.
Fayette—Carey E. Baugh and M. E. Daugherty.
Green—H. D. Smith and A. W. Humphrey.
Ross—Frank B. Mauller and Morgan Wood.

Memorial Exercises of M. W. of A.

About 100 members of both the M. W. of A. and Royal Neighbor Lodges met at their hall Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and marched in a body to the First Presbyterian Church, where they listened to a most excellent address by Rev. Shields. The decoration of the graves of the deceased members was attended to by a committee.
The local lodge is enjoying a boom, many new members having been added during the past few weeks.

AT INCREASED SALARIES

Teachers of Local Public Schools Are Re-employed—Two New Teachers.

At the meeting of the Hillsboro Board of Education Monday night the teachers for the ensuing year were employed. All of the old teachers were re-employed except Miss Mary Leamy, Latin teacher in the High School and Miss Mary Hussey, of the Primary Department, who resigned.

Miss Elma D. Carey, of near Samanthia, who is a graduate of Wilmington College, will take Miss Leamy's place and Miss Lula Arnett, who has been a substitute in the local schools for several years, will succeed Miss Hussey.

All of the teachers were given substantial increases in salary.

The teachers employed and their salaries are as follows:

High School—J. B. Conard, Principal, $1200; J. K. Condon, Commercial, $1000; A. L. Edgington, $720; John S. Hare, $725; Faith Glenn, $650; Elma D. Carey, $650.

B. LaMonda, principal Webster Building, $750; Anna Hughes Marks $575; Laura Hodson $600 if the eighth grade is divided, $650 if the grade is not divided.

CHAIR BOYS OF DANVILLE

Write Interesting Letter From Winchester, Ind., Telling Their Experiences.

June 5, 1910.
From the Chair Boys of Danville, at Winchester, Ind., Randolph county, to the readers of the NEWS-HERALD: God bless our happy homes on wheels.
The following left home May 23, 1910, enroute for North western Indiana: Ike, Nate, Bobby, Bill, Jarvey, Slim, Peggy and Dick.
We passed through Lynchburg and Wilmington arriving at Oakland, where we went into camp the first evening. We broke camp the next morning passing through Harveysburg, where we went down the S. S. hill. One of the wagons became uncontrollable and turned over twice and when the occupants came to their right minds found themselves going up hill.
We then went through Waynesville into Franklin where we camped along the Miami river. We spent the evening fishing and boat riding where Nat and Billy got upset but managed to swim to the bank unharmed.
The next morning we proceeded on our journey through Montgomery and Darke counties where we saw many fine farms and large tobacco barns. We then crossed over the state line where we had Nat and Bill searching for the copper wire which divides the states.
The corn crop is looking prosperous but the wheat is not as good as in old Highland.
We then traveled through Randolph county, Ind., reaching Winchester, Saturday, May 29, at 4 p. m., where we received mail from home and were glad to hear from old Highland. We then went into camp about 4 mile from town along the banks of the White river in a most pleasant place close to a church where we all attended Sunday School. The people gave us a hearty welcome and invited us back again.
We broke camp again Monday morning and arriving in town were disappointed as our chairs had not arrived. We then returned to the old camping place where we celebrated Decoration Day.
Returning to town Tuesday morning we loaded our chairs and traveled toward New Castle, where we got into the hills where there are many great old wells. While visiting one of the large pumping stations two of the boys got lost in one of the tanks finding themselves the next morning at Lima.
We then traveled towards Winchester seeing many large cattle farms and parks. We arrived again at Winchester Saturday, June 4, at 3 p. m., where we received more mail from home also all of the county papers in which we enjoyed reading the good old Highland county news. We then went back to our old camping place which seemed very much like home.
We spent the evening fishing in the White river and catching many fine fish.
We were visited Sunday by many of our neighbors whom we entertained in the bright sunlight, which was welcomed by all for we have been having some bad weather. We will break camp June 6, enroute for Bluffton, Ind., where we will receive another car load of chairs, and from there start for home rejoicing where we will spend the glorious Fourth.—Lloyd Wood, Hugh Stockwell, Leonard Roush, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wood, Floyd Roush, Jacob Fawley and Delbert Roush.

Horse Killed by Train.

Mr. Anders, one of the rural mail carriers from Leesburg met with an accident Monday while performing his duties. While he was holding his horse near the railroad waiting for the train to pass the horse became unruly and jumped on the track in front of it and was instantly killed. The mail wagon to which it was hitched was torn to pieces but Mr. Anders escaped without an injury.

Married.

Everett C. Roush, of Danville, and Miss Verna Mae Winkle, of Mowrytown, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stout on Vine street yesterday afternoon. Only a few invited friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. O. L. Martin, of the Baptist church of this city. The happy young couple after a short honeymoon trip will go to housekeeping on a farm near Danville.

John Culhane, a former resident of Hillsboro, died at his home at Cambridge last Thursday. Mrs. Jerry Lynch and Mrs. T. B. Thornburg attended the funeral.

SAYRE OF ATHENS

Gets Nomination for Circuit Judgeship Defeating Newby and Games.

Judge E. D. Sayre, of Athens, was nominated by the Republican convention at Chillicothe yesterday for circuit judge on the first ballot.
The score stood Sayre, 68; Games, (of Portsmouth), 28; Newby, 24.
The failure of Judge Newby to land the prize is a great disappointment to his many friends, regardless of party. His name was presented to the convention in an eloquent speech by Hon. George L. Garrett.
Col. D. Q. Morrow and Hon. Coke L. Doster were chosen Judicial Committeemen for Highland county.

Birthday Party.

Miss Gladys Custer very pleasantly entertained a large crowd of her little playmates at her home on East Muntz street, Saturday afternoon, June 4, in honor of her ninth birthday.
The afternoon was very pleasantly spent playing games. She was showered with beautiful presents, flowers and post cards from kind friends and neighbors. Refreshments were served at four.
Those present were Ira and Gladys Beam, Ersyl and Carl Walker, Martha Hecker, Juanita Nave, Lucy Nave, Helen Ruble, Elizabeth Morris, Mary Lewis, Myrtle Thornburg, Easter Head, Joseph Head, Everett Bright, Ruth Cooper, George Hall, Loren Vance, Easter Penn, Martha Roads, Georgiana Swartz, Myrtle and Irma Fawley, Mrs. Kenneth Vance, Miss Marie Woodrow, Mrs. Ward Custer and son, Norman Ray, Mrs. Will Nave and Mrs. Charles Beam. Misses Irma and Myrtle Fawley were out of town guests, they also staid and spent a few days with Miss Gladys.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Memorial Services.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. held their Memorial services at the Christian Church Sunday morning at 10:30. They were accompanied by several members of the auxiliary order, the Daughters of America. Rev. Murch delivered a splendid address, reviewing the history of their order from its beginning until the present, showing the good that had been accomplished by it. The graves of their dead comrades were decorated earlier in the day by a committee.

Death of George Fender.

George Fender, who lived a short distance west of Hollowtown, died Thursday evening from the result of a stroke of paralysis. About a year ago he suffered a slight stroke which was followed by another Monday morning, from which time he remained unconscious until his death.

Mr. Fender was an excellent man, a good neighbor and will be sadly missed in that community. He was a member of the Christian Church at Buford. His body was interred in the cemetery at Union, besides that of his daughter, who died several years ago.

Boosters.

Dr. H. A. Russ, D. Q. Morrow, A. W. Underwood, Granville Barrere, Dr. C. F. Faris, Frank Lemon, L. R. Duckwall, J. Ed Shannon, Carey Turner, Judge Watts, Ed Sanderson, Sam Free, Frank Emmerling, E. H. McClure, Henry Schweinsberger, C. E. Holladay, Will Ambrose, George Garrett, Will Coffman, Capt. Dawson, William Walker and Judge J. Frank Wilson went over to the Circuit Judicial Convention at Chillicothe yesterday to boost the candidacy of Judge Newby. A large number from Greenfield, Leesburg and other points of the county also went.

June Wedding.

Walter Hamilton and Miss Daisy Perrill, accompanied by George Hoop and Miss Flossie Perrill, came to the M. E. Parsonage, at Rainsboro, at 5:30 Wednesday evening, where the former couple were married in the presence of the following persons, Messrs. Davis, Roads, Lucas and Mrs. Huntington, Rev. A. E. Huntington officiating.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mrs. Lavina Perrill, of Rainsboro, and the groom is one of the prominent young farmers of the county, a son of William Hamilton, who resides near New Petersburg.

Immediately after the ceremony was performed the bridal party left for the home of the grooms father where a bounteous wedding supper awaited them.

Herbert Nelson and daughter, of Norwood, Mrs. Guy Nelson and son, of South Salem, and Mrs. Gostenhofer and Miss Mary Smart, of Chillicothe, attended the funeral services of Mrs. Dr. Lockhart Nelson, Tuesday afternoon.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

At Bell's Opera House Attended By Large and Appreciative Crowd of People.

Last Thursday night a splendid audience, that tested the capacity of Bell's Opera House, greeted the Hillsboro High School class of 1910.

The thirty-three members composing the class opened the services with the class song. To make particular mention of all, piano and cornet numbers, would require a great deal of space, but be it said that the Misses Alice Brouse, Mabel Smith, Marie McMullen, Mozelle Trop, Nellie Brunner, Florence Hilton and Reuben Hardin displayed splendid musical ability in the rendition of their numbers.

The class poem by Miss Hussey was well composed and splendidly recited.

The "Class Prophecy", given by the Misses Mary VanPelt, Madge Faris, Penelope Hindman, Mary and Carrie Lyle, Cora Brooksbank, Henry Strain, Truman Stratton, Guy Mauntel and Ralph McCafferty, was a unique as well as an interesting play. The pictures of the graduates were thrown on the curtain one at a time and Miss VanPelt gave the fortunes of each in an entertaining manner.

The class play, "Merchant of Venice," with up-to-date trimmings, followed the Class Prophecy and was well received by the large audience.

The Opera House was the scene of another large audience on Friday night. As the curtain rose, the magnificent spectacle presented by the thirty-three members of the class caused a thrill of admiration among the auditors, which gradually developed into thunderous applause.

Miss Florence Hardeman, of Cincinnati, a noted violinist, is certainly in a class by herself. Her numbers were vigorously applauded.

The Male Quartet, of Cincinnati, gave several numbers which were well rendered and appreciated by all.

Dr. Colley, in a brief and humorous introduction, presented the speaker, Dr. C. W. Blodgett, of Cincinnati, who delivered a magnificent address, replete with sound logic and good advice to members of the class. The address was followed by the presentation of the diplomas by Supt. Arter. He spoke feelingly of the pleasant association of the past four years, complimenting them on their faithful work and urging them to continue steadfast in their desire to go onward and upward in the higher education.

The commencement exercises of the eight grade, taught by Miss Laura Hodson, was held at the Washington school building last Thursday afternoon. This was the first commencement of this kind ever held in this city and a good deal of interest was manifested in its success. A large audience listened attentively to the rendition of a most excellent program by the graduates and each number was vigorously applauded. The debate on the subject, Resolved, "That the Spanish-American War Might Have Been Avoided," was decided in favor of negative side. Affirmative, Robert Duffy, Harlie Pence; Negative, John Jordan, Thomas Maroney.

The address by Rev. Harris was splendidly received. The exercises closed with the presentation of the diplomas by J. B. Worley, one of the members of the school board.

Death of Thomas Smith.

Thomas Smith, aged 33 years, died at his home on East North street Friday morning, after a short illness with pneumonia.

The funeral services were held from the late residence Sunday afternoon, Rev. Murch preaching the sermon, after which the members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. read their beautiful burial services.

The employees of Bell's Foundry, where Mr. Smith had worked for many years, attended the services in a body. They also sent a beautiful floral piece as token of the high esteem in which he was held by his co-workers.

Increase in C. & C. Appraisement.

County Auditor, John Q. Roads, went to Cincinnati Thursday and met the auditors from Clermont and Hamilton counties for the purpose of appraising the traction road, cars, etc. They increased the main track from $2000 to $3000 per mile and the rolling stock from $350 to $500 per mile. The Power House, engine, etc., were left at the old appraisement of $500 per mile. The tools, machinery and money were increased from nothing to $530 per mile. The entire appraisement for the 53 miles of road and equipment is $240.09. For the 14.7 miles of the road in this county the increase for taxable purposes is $23,637.60.

Mrs. James G. Lyle and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rector are the guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. David L. Jolly, and other relatives at Dayton.
